JOHN ROCHA AT WATERFORD

Waterford introduces a new interiors collection by John Rocha, the highly regarded Dublin-based fashion designer who piloted the brand's first foray into contemporary design with the successful John Rocha at Waterford Crystal collection that has been sold in the global marketplace since 1997. Having already won global acclaim and all of the major European fashion awards (British Designer of the Year, made an OBE by HM Queen Elizabeth II), John Rocha has set his sights on the world of interior design with his collaboration with world famous architects on residential and commercial projects in Europe and Asia.

The Solas Collection, handcrafted at House of Waterford, Ireland, features a multitude of prismatic crystals in various sizes to amplify points of reflected light. The ornate crystal frame features undulating curves evocative of Indian-Persian paisley design between uniformly geometric borders.

ETOILE NOUVEAU & LUMINESCENCE COLLECTIONS

Billy Canning brings years of experience in the Lighting industry, including his role as chief designer of Waterford Lighting, to the newly imagined contemporary lighting collections. A graduate of National College of Art and Design in Dublin, the premier Industrial Design School in Ireland, he joined Waterford Crystal in 1985. During the 24 years he designed and managed multimillion bespoke Lighting projects worldwide, from the deserts of the Middle East, the Equatorial climes of Indonesia, to the palatial mansions of Beverly Hills.

Magnificent, multi-tiered sculptures of illumination, Etoile Nouveau lighting showcases layers of shimmering prisms. The sleek silhouette of Etoile Nouveau is ideal for both traditional and contemporary decors.

Billy Canning's new Luminescence Lighting Collection features scores of brilliantly refractive crystal gems swirling about an intricate teardrop motif reminiscent of Imperial Russia's fabled jewelled eggs – old-world masterpieces of the jeweller's art and the iconic symbol of luxury. Luminescence lighting includes a pendant chandelier, designed to be hung in clusters for a dazzling effect of shimmering light and maximum visual impact.
