

The NEW donna hay for Royal Doulton tableware range offers a collection of timeless pieces for everyday style

Royal Doulton and Donna Hay have collaborated once again to create a striking new collection of tableware and cutlery.

The signature crisp white of Modern Classics and delicate pattern of Modern Nostalgia feature once again but with a new, modern design.

Inspired by Donna's treasured vintage serveware collected over the years and coupled with her elegant design appeal, the new range offers versatile, stylish additions to the existing donna hay for Royal Doulton collection.

Celebrating Donna's passion for all things vintage, the new cutlery set is inspired by a nostalgic style. The forks, with their longer lines, possess a classic appeal which adds a touch of elegance to any table setting. The cutlery range also includes dainty teaspoons and cake forks in sets of four. In true Donna Hay style, the pieces are multi-functional – the salad servers, designed with a deeper curve, are also ideal for serving puddings, trifle and fruit salads.

Perfect to gift or use at a wedding or other special occasion, the cake knife and server set have a timeless, classic look that will become cherished family keepsakes.

The simple and fine lines of the bone china three-tiered cake stands will become an essential addition to any morning tea. Their elegant shape and design - Modern Classic and Modern Nostalgia - lends them to not only serve sandwiches and sweets but also to display flowers or tealights.

The new additions to the donna hay for Royal Doulton collection allows us to create the perfect setting.

About Donna Hay

At the age of eight, Donna Hay skipped into a kitchen, picked up a mixing bowl and never looked back. Donna Hay is Australia's leading food editor and best-selling cookbook author. Her food, recipes and styling focus on basic ingredients that are simply prepared and beautifully photographed – hallmarks of her work which have set the benchmark for food publishing worldwide and inspired a whole new generation of cooks.

Donna's career as a food writer and stylist began when she was 19. She was appointed food editor of marie claire when she was 25. In 2001 she launched donna hay magazine, a highly acclaimed, top-selling bi-monthly food magazine with tremendous local success and far-reaching international appeal.

Her simple and style-driven approach is reflected in her 22 award-winning cookbooks. She has sold more than 4 million copies worldwide and her books have been translated into nine languages.

Donna's successful homewares range was developed with Royal Doulton and has been available worldwide since 2011. This range includes classic dinnerware and collections for tea, cake and special occasions, plus kitchenware and tools for cooking and baking.

In early 2009, Donna launched the donna hay general store, which has quickly grown into a booming online business. Donna is a working mum with two beautiful boys.
