WEDGWOOD

ENGLAND 1759

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS
WILD STRAWBERRY

When the Wild Strawberry design first appeared in 1965 it captured the imagination of the public as being "quintessentially English". Wild Strawberry tableware features crisp clean white bone china decorated with finely-drawn leaves, flowers and succulent wild strawberries. A lustrous rim of 22 carat-gold completes the decoration of this elegant and whimsical dinnerware collection and adds just a touch of delicious opulence to any entertaining occasion. In 2015 we will celebrate the 50th birthday of Wild Strawberry with an exciting new collection. Building up to this anniversary, Wedgwood reintroduces Wild Strawberry dinnerware and teaware.

Distinctive graphic prints adorn crisp contours of the fine bone china for sophisticated dining. A versatile offering of gilded pure white tableware is complimented by accent coffee and teaware in warm greys, encouraging stylish eclecticism. Fine bone china tea and coffee sets acknowledge a touch of modernity, achieved through contemporary yet classically elegant lines and balanced by a subtle geometric motif, accented through a lustrous gilded rim.

Taking inspiration from the 19th Century oriental designs from the Wedgwood archive, this opulent design wonderfully represents the dragon and phoenix, together symbolising within Chinese culture, beauty, power, and good fortune, deemed as imperial status. Detailed mythological creatures are showcased in tones of gold against the eclectic, textured background in beautiful regal hues of red and blue. The range is completed with accents of gold.

A modern-day equivalent of an original 18th Century pattern, the Night and Day Collection is characterized by timeless design details that have resiliently stood the test of time. Rendered in white fine bone china and decorated with precisely etched lines inspired by the engine-turning lathe technique that Josiah Wedgwood first innovated in 1767.

WEDGWOOD

ENGLAND 1759

Teaware

Butterfly Bloom is inspired by Wedgwood Archive patterns taken from pattern books held within the Museum's Archive trust. An eclectic mix of pattern with abundant blooms of English and Oriental flowers and butterflies. The soft colour palette and a stylised hand drawn quality add to the collection's charm.

Ceramic decorative designs take inspiration from Robert 'Bob' Minkin's distinctive yet simple 1960s forms where angular profiles act as the canvas for a striking play on contrasts between chalky ceramic finishes and lustrous copper detailing. The allure of beautiful design expertly combined with utility. The rituals of the vanity dresser are enriched by the modernist lines of the Arris mirror, versatile metal bowl and a fresh take on the classic rose bowl.

Butterfly Bloom Candle 9cm
Gardenia and Peony Fragrance
0404 300
AU$99.95 - NZ$119.00

Inspired by feminine 18th century ceramic designs combining florals and butterflies, this Butterfly Bloom scented candle is a heady mix of Gardenia and Peony, which will uplift and refresh the senses and infuse the home with a sensuous aroma reminiscent of a warm summer's evening.

Cuckoo Candle 9cm
Rose and Jasmine Fragrance
0404 301
AU$99.95 - NZ$119.00

Inspired by an oriental 19th Century ceramic design combining Chinese flowers and birds, Cuckoo has an exotic feel. Capturing notes from the flowers within the design, this scented candle is an energising mix of Rose and Jasmine, which will uplift the senses.

Renaissance Gold Candle 9cm
Vanilla and Sandalwood Fragrance
0404 302
AU$99.95 - NZ$119.00

Renaissance is a bold contemporary design inspired by the pure oval form of the Wedgwood cameo. A blend of the exotic fragrances of sandalwood and vanilla will rejuvenate the senses and infuse the home with a welcoming, warm and spicy aroma.

Wild Strawberry Candle 9cm
Strawberry and Vanilla Fragrance
0404 303
AU$99.95 - NZ$119.00

A subtle aroma of Wild Strawberries with a warm bouquet of vanilla reminiscent of the classic English summer dessert of strawberries and cream.

Cornucopia Candle 9cm
Earl Grey Fragrance
0404 305
AU$99.95 - NZ$119.00

Inspired by the exuberant expression of the Cornucopia pattern, this scented candle blends the fresh aroma of lemon and bergamot oil with the subtle scent of tea leaves to revitalise the senses.

Sweet Plum Candle 9cm
Sweet Plum and Raspberry Fragrance
0404 304
AU$99.95 - NZ$119.00

JASPER CONRAN AT WEDGWOOD

British design guru Jasper Conran, an authority on style, has created the most sublime tabletop collections for Wedgwood.

An entrepreneur, innovator and collaborator, with a reputation for having a cheeky, irreverent attitude mixed with British elegance, his ranges have a classically elegant, bold and striking design.

Inspired by his attention to detail and modern luxury combined with exquisite proportions, the collections are a fresh take on contemporary entertaining, transforming the everyday into an occasion.

A platinum border has been applied to add a hint of grandeur to fine bone china.

The Tisbury range melds function and fluidity in a collection which elevates everyday dining to a welcome occasion, stunning in its simplicity and tactile design. Original inspiration derived from the distinctive Tisbury Jug, which displays curvaceous lines counterpoised by the widely recognisable Jasper Conran angled handle. The collection name is inspired by the village in which Jasper Conran lives.

VERAWANG

WEDGWOOD

ENGLAND 1759

Vera Wang, a name synonymous with bridal couture and elegant romantic fashion design, is not confined to women's wear alone. The Vera Wang touch has been added to a stunning collection in an exclusive collaboration with Wedgwood to create a range of fine bone china dining ware, graceful crystal stemware and stylish silver gifts. Every range must always personify her sense of style, her lifelong love of fashion, and must celebrate the romance, sensuality and spirit of modern youth.

A fusion of tradition and beauty with a contemporary edge, the Vera Wang collection is as whimsical as it is practical, and confident as it is graceful.

'I am forever experimenting with white' explains renowned New York fashion designer Vera Wang, on her stunning Vera Wang Blanc Sur Blanc Dinnerware Collection for Wedgwood. 'The marriage of different whites provides depth, dimension and texture without the distraction of colour'. The result is fine bone china characterised by sleek, elegant sophistication.

The Vera Simplicity collection of casual dinnerware offers a chic approach to everyday dining. Vera Simplicity Indigo introduces a rich indigo color palette to the collection in two bold, complementary designs – Ombre and Chevron. Mixing the solid blue hues of ombre with the indigo chevrons and florals create a dynamic tablescape of eye catching variety and casual eclecticism.

Of the many artistic elements Vera Wang utilises in her bridal creations, the subtle sparkle of sequins provided the inspiration for a dazzling new collection of crystal stemware and giftware, Sequin. Sequin's myriad of delicate octagonal crystal cuts creates a luminous display of natural crystal refraction.

General Information

Care Instructions

Tableware

Wedgwood tableware is all made to be used. Before being accepted for production, all new patterns are put through an exhaustive series of tests to ensure they are as hard wearing as possible. Quality checks are constantly carried out on tableware to monitor its ability to resist acids, alkalis and other substances present in foods and detergents, and withstand the general rigours of day-to-day use. So don't keep your tableware locked away, use it and enjoy it with confidence.

Storing Your Tableware

All tableware is subject to abrasion from repeated handling and stacking. We recommend that you stack no more than six items together, one on top of another. To avoid scratching your tableware, plates should not be slid out from the bottom of a stack – always lift them out from the top.

Washing By Hand

As a matter of hygiene, you should always wash any new purchases of tableware before first use in a mild solution of liquid detergent.

Washing-up is one of the occasions when tableware can be damaged if it is not properly handled during both washing and draining. Even in water, the glazed surfaces can become scratched if rubbed against each other with force. So avoid putting too many plates in the water at any one time.

Normal dish washing products used in hand-hot water will not harm your tableware. Teapot and coffeepot stains can be removed with bicarb soda, and silverware cleaner will remove “pencil marks” caused by minute deposits of metal from cutlery. Abrasives and harsh scourers should not be used on your bone china tableware.

Washing Your Tableware In A Dishwasher

It is perfectly safe to wash your tableware in an automatic dishwasher, so long as these guidelines are adhered to.

- Load the washer so that pieces do not touch each other, to avoid the risk of scratching. Do not overload.
- Wash at 65°C maximum – the “short wash” or “china and crystal” cycle is sufficient for normal cleaning.
- As soon as the wash water has drained away, there should be an immediate rinse cycle to flush away deposits of detergent which will form a film if allowed to dry.
- In dishwashers, we recommend the use of Finish Powerball All in 1 and Cussons Morning Fresh Complete Tabs. Follow the manufacturers instructions on the appropriate quantity of detergent to be used.

Freezers

Wedgwood tableware can be safely used in a freezer. However, care should be taken when re-heating frozen foods. No matter how strong the tableware, sudden changes of temperature (e.g. taking from the freezer and placing directly into a hot oven) is likely to cause thermal shock, which will damage the tableware.

Warming Your Tableware

It is perfectly safe to warm your tableware in your oven, up to 65°C. However, it should never be exposed to direct heat from a naked flame or to rapid changes in temperature.

Microwave Cooking

Many of the Wedgwood tableware patterns can safely be used in a microwave oven. However, tableware decorated with any form of metallic rim or decoration (gold, silver or platinum) must not be placed in a microwave oven, where the intense heat will damage its high concentrations of precious metal. Never use your tableware in a microwave oven with the oven function.

Jasperware

(UNIQUE STONEWARE CONTAINS COLORANT IN THE BODY.)

We recommend that you hand-wash your Jasperware in moderately hot water with a mild detergent. For more stubborn stains, rub the Jasperware with a toothbrush or a small brush with polishing powder.

Never use your Jasperware in a microwave oven, conventional oven or refrigerator. Sudden changes of temperature are likely to cause cracking or breakage.

Silver Plated Products

Caring For Your Silver Plated Items

For general cleaning, silver plated items should be wiped gently with a clean soft cloth without detergent or chemicals. Solvents such as enamel remover or thinner, abrasives, harsh scourers, wire wool or hard scrubbing brushes should not be used on silver plated products at any time as they will damage the surface.

Silver plated product may get discoloured over time, in which case, please polish with a silver cleaner or a polish specially formulated for cleaning silver.

If you don't intend to use your silver plated product for a long period, wrap it in a cloth and place it in storage to avoid exposure to air as this will slow down discoloration. Silver items should not be stored in direct contact with leather or rubber, such as elastic bands.

Alternative Metal Giftware

- Wash thoroughly prior to first use and immediately hand dry.
- Hand washing is recommended – dry immediately with a soft cloth to avoid spotting.
- Do not let alternative metal product soak.
- Dishwasher use is not recommended.
- Do not use in microwave or to heat food in oven.

Stainless Steel Cutlery

- To remove streaking, use a soft dish towel and rub a little olive oil on the cutlery.
- One can polish and shine stainless steel by using vinegar and a soft cloth to wipe the cutlery – this is also good to remove heat stains from the cutlery. Club soda can also be used as an alternative.
- When placing cutlery in the dishwasher, rinse off any salty or acidic foods stuck to the cutlery.
- Clean the items with warm water and a gentle detergent and dry them by hand immediately. Letting them drip dry will cause spotting and streaking.
- To avoid spotting on knives specifically, remove knives from dishwasher before spots form then dry with soft cloth. This will help preserve the blade also.
- Remember, do not use harsh abrasives or steel wool on stainless steel as it will scratch the surface and cause additional damage.
- To remove rust, use a moist sponge and a strong but non-abrasive cleanser.

Glossary of Terms

Assurance	Assurance is a 2 year warranty. See next page for details.
Fine Bone china	Bone china is the strongest of all ceramic bodies. It contains 50% bone, 25% clay and 25% stone. The unglazed pieces are fired at a high temperature and then the glazed pieces are fired at a lower temperature, making it soft to the touch.
Crystal glass	Crystal glass is a glass product that contains a minimum of 10% metal oxides (which may or may not be lead oxide, which give the product brilliance and strength.
Earthenware	Made from fired clay, earthenware is fired at lower temperatures than bone china.
Fine china	Fine china was developed by Wedgwood in the 1950's as a more affordable alternative to bone china. It is made from china clay, stone and silica. It is fully vitrified which gives it strength.
Glass	Glass is made from silicates and alkali fused at a high temperature.
Gold	The gold used to trim and decorate china is 22 carat gold.
Jasperware	A type of stoneware first developed by Josiah Wedgwood, noted for its matte finish, range of colours and white decoration.
L/S	Large size
Lead crystal	A glass product which contains 24% metal oxides, which gives the product brilliance and strength and makes the crystal easier to cut.
Limited edition	Product is numbered and only a predetermined number are produced.
M/S	Medium size.
Made in	Indicates country of manufacture. Please note country of manufacture is subject to change. Country of manufacture will be noted on product, barcode sticker or packaging.
Mica	An alternative to gold trim, mica trim looks like gold but has the added benefit of being microwave safe.
Packaging	Indicates how product is usually packaged.
Porcelain	Hard, translucent clayware usually consisting of 50% kaolin, 25% quartz, and 25% feldspar. Kaolin provides plasticity, durability, consistency, and adds whiteness. Quartz provides stability, and feldspar allows for vitrification of piece (formation of hard, glassy, surface). Porcelain is hard and resistant to temperature changes, making it ideal for bakeware.
RRP	Recommended Retail Price. This retail price includes GST and is only a guide. There is no obligation to adhere to this price.
S/S	Small size.
Shape	For tableware patterns this indicates the shape of the body of the pattern.
Stoneware	Hard clay fired at higher temperatures than earthenware. It is vitrified, hard and chip resistant.
Time Limited	Product that is time limited is only made for a certain period of time - usually one year.
Vitrification	During firing, silica is changed into glass and bonds all the ingredients together. When the level of glassy bonds increase, the porosity lowers, and china is considered fully vitrified.
18/10 Stainless Steel	Refers to the ratio of chromium (18%) and nickel (10%) added to carbon steel in the stainless steel manufacturing process.

Assurance Program

Assurance

WWRD Australia Pty Ltd will replace, through our authorised retailers, at no cost to the consumer, any registered item of any current Wedgwood china tableware, silverware, crystal giftware and crystal stemware, glass drinkware or cutlery product which chips, breaks or is faulty within two years from the date of purchase.

We will also notify any consumers, who have registered, when their tableware, stemware or cutlery pattern is being retired.

Assurance Guidelines and Procedures

1. Distribution of Leaflet to Customer

When the consumer purchases eligible Wedgwood product the retailer gives them an Assurance leaflet. Leaflets and claim forms are available from WWRD sales representatives or Customer Service.

2. Registration by Consumer

The consumer then fills out the Assurance registration form, tears it off the leaflet and posts it back to Wedgwood Assurance, WWRD Australia, Replay Paid 85800 Blacktown BC NSW 2148. Registration is required for each and every purchase.

The consumer should keep the Assurance leaflet with their proof of purchase (receipt or closed wedding list)

3. Activating the Replacement

In the event of the item chipping or accidental breakages, the consumer should take the item and their Assurance leaflet and proof of purchase (receipt or closed wedding list) to the retailer where they purchased the item.

4. Checking Validity of Warranty Claim

The retailer should check the date of purchase to ensure the warranty period is valid. If the consumer has no proof of purchase or warranty leaflet use your judgment to determine if the piece is within the warranty period.

The retailer could also check with Customer Service for Assurance registration validity.

If the retailer is satisfied that the item falls within the conditions of the warranty then the replacement is arranged.
